PROFILE

Experienced and detail-oriented web developer with expertise in full stack development and database management. Skilled in designing, developing, and maintaining responsive web and mobile applications using modern technologies such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Angular, Node.js, and Python. Proficient in building robust back-end systems with Django and GraphQL, optimizing database performance with MySQL, MongoDB, and Supabase, and ensuring seamless integration between front-end and back-end components. Adept at creating scalable, secure, and user-friendly solutions, with additional experience in n8n automation to streamline workflows. Passionate about staying updated with the latest industry trends and delivering high-quality, innovative digital solutions.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- LIZRIS (PVT) LTD. 2024 - 2025
Intern - Full Stack Developer

I have experience developing and maintaining responsive web and mobile applications using React.js and React Native, with strong back-end expertise in Node.js for API integration and server-side logic. I've worked with databases like Supabase, MySQL, and MongoDB to ensure efficient and secure data management. In addition, I create visually appealing UI/graphic designs to enhance user engagement and collaborate closely with cross-functional teams to deliver high-quality projects on time.
- THAMIZHI LLC. 2025
Associate Software Developer

I have gained experience working with the Angular framework for front-end development and used Python with Django and GraphQL to build scalable back-end systems. I've collaborated on multiple large-scale projects, handling diverse tasks, and additionally explored n8n automation and AI frameworks, contributing to related project implementations.
